§ 137. Establishment of National Cancer Institute; purpose. For the purposes of conducting researches, investigations, experiments, and studies relating to the cause, diagnosis, and treatment of cancer; assisting and fostering similar research activities by other agencies, public and private; and promoting the coordination of all such researches and activities and the useful application of their results, with a view to the development and prompt widespread use of the most effective methods of prevention, diagnosis, and treatment of cancer, there is hereby established in the Public Health Service a division which shall be known as the National Cancer Institute (referred to in this chapter as the "Institute"). (Aug. 5, 1937, c. 565, § 1, 50 Stat. 559.)

§ 137a. Powers and duties of Surgeon General. The Surgeon General of the Public Health Service (referred to in this chapter as the "Surgeon General") is authorized and directed for the purposes of this chapter and subject to its provisions, through the Institute and in cooperation with the National Cancer Advisory Council established in this chapter—

(a) Fosterage of research. To conduct, assist, and foster researches, investigations, experiments, and studies relating to the cause, prevention, and methods of diagnosis and treatment of cancer;

(b) Coordination of researches. To promote the coordination of researches conducted by the Institute and similar researches conducted by other agencies, organizations, and individuals;

(c) Acquisition, use, and loan of radium. To procure, use, and lend radium as provided in this chapter;

(d) Technical training and instruction. To provide training and instruction in technical matters relating to the diagnosis and treatment of cancer;

(e) Establishment of fellowships. To provide fellowships in the Institute from funds appropriated or donated for such purpose;

(f) Securement of expert advice. To secure for the Institute consultation services and advice of cancer experts from the United States and abroad; and

(g) Cooperation with state agencies. To cooperate with State health agencies in the prevention, control, and eradication of cancer. (Aug. 5, 1937, c. 565, § 2, 50 Stat. 559.)

§ 137b. Establishment of National Advisory Cancer Council; members. There is hereby created the National Advisory Cancer Council (referred to in this chapter as the "Council"), to consist of six members to be appointed by the Surgeon General with the approval of the Secretary of the Treasury, and of the Surgeon General, ex officio, who shall be chairman of the Council. The six appointed members shall be selected from leading medical or scientific authorities who are outstanding in the study, diagnosis, or treatment of cancer in the United States. Each appointed member shall hold office for a term of three years, except that (1) any member appointed to fill a vacancy occurring prior to the expiration of the term for which his predecessor was appointed shall be appointed for the remainder of such term, and (2) the terms of office of the members first taking office shall expire, as designated by the Surgeon General at the time of appointment, two at the end of the first year, two at the end of the second year, and two at the end of the third year after the date of the first meeting of the Council. No appointed member shall be eligible to serve continuously for more than three years but shall be eligible for reappointment if he has not served as a member of the Council at any time within
